Contents

Acknowledgments vii

1. Introduction to Letter Links With Infants and Toddlers  1

Letter Links — For Babies?  2

What the Research Says  3

Speaking and Producing Sounds  4

Symbol Recognition and the Use of Environmental Print  5

Alphabetic Principle and Letter Recognition  7

Phonological Awareness: Cracking the Letter-Sound Code  7

Writing and Fine-Motor Skills  9

Meaningful Interactions and Emerging Communication  10

References  12

2. Getting Started With Letter Links  15

Letter Links — Step by Step  16

Step 1: Learn children's names  16

Step 2: Learn how to pronounce children's names  16

Step 3: Allow the child or parent to select a letter-linked image  17

Step 4: Select letter-linked images for adults in the classroom  17

Step 5: Make multiple nametags with letter links  18

Step 6: Make multiple letter links for each child  18

Step 7: Identify each child's belongings with nametags and letterlinked pictures  18

Step 8: Incorporate each child's letter link into the environment and routine  19

Frequently Asked Questions  19

3. Letter-Linked Learning Activities  23

Let's Get Started!  24

Learning Environment and Materials  24

Schedules and Routines  25

Family Connections  32

4. Nametags and Letter Links  33

About the Author  75